Luxury Hotel in Mendoza

Mendoza is recognized as one of the world's top wine producing areas. The city and surrounding countryside are some of the most picturesque and characterful in Argentina. You can easily lose yourself for an afternoon in the city's cafes and exploring charming tree lined streets. And if you tire of the wine tasting and want to do something more active we can arrange for outdoor treks or white water rafting through some beautiful countryside.

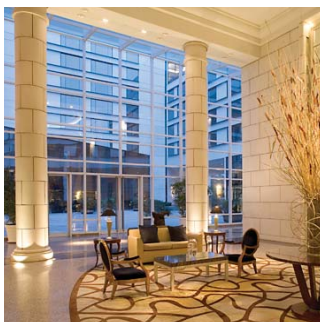

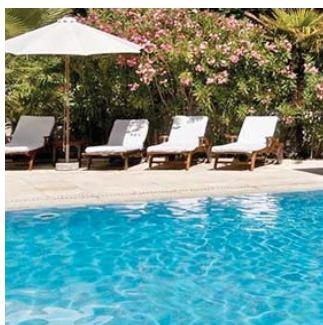

Set right in the heart of the historic town of Mendoza your stylish luxury hotel is only a stones throw away from award winning producers of Malbec and Torrontes varietals, whilst the snow capped peaks of the nearby Andes frame the horizon.

On a day of your choice your guide Luciana and your driver Oscar will pick you up from reception to take you on a tour of some of the best vineyards in the area where you will have chance to taste some of their reserve wines.

The hotel is the finest in town and is very well equipped with a couple of great restaurants, a full spa and beautiful swimming pool.

Stunning Luxury Estancia in the Pampas

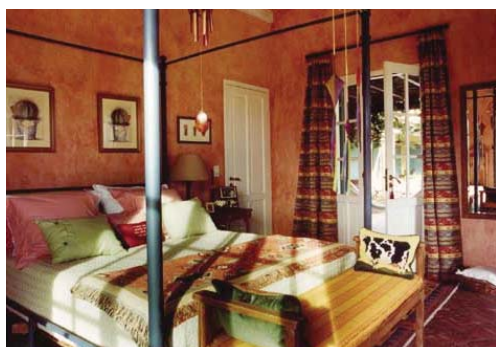

4 nights

Set in the aristocratic heartland of Argentina, the Pampas of Buenos Aires state, this is a very special working estancia where the French owner has managed to maintain the authentic experience without compromising on comfort and service.

For polo players, the estancia has an excellent stable of polo ponies and on site are numerous talented professionals to give lessons for all levels of players, not least Juan Jose Alerdi a national legend who has played in the Palermo Open no less than 15 times.

The country retreat of the State Governor in the 1820's the estancia is now kept at a level of luxury rarely found in a country home. There are just 4 bedrooms arranged around a central patio and decorated with great attention to detail and many interesting finds from the owners' extensive travels

From high cotton count sheets on their fabulously comfortable beds to the delicious, perfectly cooked food that emerges from their kitchen. We send many non-polo playing guests to stay here just because it is so charming and comfortable and has the genuine feel of an Argentine estancia.

The service and food here is excellent (tasty traditional fare with a French influence). Activities available include horse riding, polo, and massages, while there is also a solarium and swimming pool should you tire whilst exploring the 400 acres of parkland.

– Double Room, all meals & activities included

Day 9

You will be driven to your opulent hotel in Buenos Aires.

Luxury Boutique Hotel in Buenos Aires

4 nights

Though there is a very European look to Buenos Aires with its Parisian-style avenues, grand squares and elegant cafés it still has a distinctively South American feel, with laid-back and friendly locals. This city is a real joy to explore with well preserved historic districts coupled with an excellent nightlife and a relaxed café culture. You will have our extensively researched Dehouche recommendations on the best restaurants bars and nightclubs.

You stay in Buenos Aires's most exclusive hotel, a stunning French Classical mansion in the heart of the Recoleta district, recently restored to an impeccable level of sophistication and elegance, housing just 10 luxuriously appointed suites, a rooftop pool, full spa (including an organic "vine therapy" using grapes from the owner's own estates in Mendoza) and Cognac and wine bar.

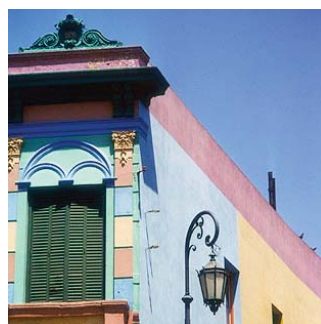

Our experienced guide Ana will join you for a custom-made tour of the city based on your requirements, making sure that everything is done at your pace. She is great fun to be with and has access to many locations off the tourist trail. On one night we will also arrange a special table at our favorite Tango show, the venue is a little less well known and is the authentic glimpse of the Tango.

- Suite, breakfast included
- Private guided tour
- Tango Show, with dinner, champagne and wine

Day 13

Luxury private transfer to the airport (EZE) in time for your international flight home.
